

Anomalous fluctuations in KPZ and random polymers

Jeremy Quastel

University of Toronto

We will describe the large scale behaviour that is conjectured to be universal for a large class of one dimensional systems, and recent progress on the continuum versions of these models.