This assignment is more like a progress report. It will be a group assignment. I want an outline of the project including some references that you have found. Some substantial details about the results you have encountered as well as the Mathematics you hope to explore. This can include actual theorems as well as proof techniques. I will give feedback relatively quickly.