Jacobson handout, problems 1, 2, 4, 5 6, 7

Problem 2 is a bit of a mess. You may take the first part about the resolvent cubic and the Galois group for granted, and just derive formulae for the $y_i$ in terms of the $z_i$ and suitable square roots.