Canadian Science and Engineering Hall of Fame

Call for Nominations

The Canadian Science and Engineering Hall of Fame is part of the Innovation Canada series at the Canada Science and Technology Museum. Here, we honor the achievements of outstanding scientists whose contributions to Canada have made a significant impact.

Over thirty scientists, inventors, and innovators are recognized annually. The achievements of these honorees have been so remarkable and their contributions to society so great that we aim one day that all Canadians will be aware of their accomplishments.