

Interested in a Cutting-Edge Career at the Intersection of Information Technology and Health Care/Biomedical Research?

Join us for our first-ever Biomedical Informatics Graduate School Open House. Learn about Oregon's innovative and only Biomedical Informatics Graduate Program.

You are invited to be our guest at our upcoming Open House. It is an opportunity for us to introduce you to this exciting and challenging new field at the intersection of information technology with health care and biomedical research.

Saturday, November 4, 2006

11:30 a.m. – 2 p.m.

Oregon Health & Science University
Portland, OR

Open House Agenda:

- 11:30 a.m. registration/networking – pizza lunch provided
- 12:30 p.m. opening session – William Hersh, M.D., chair
- 12:45 p.m. guest speakers
- 1:30 p.m. student and alumni panel
- 2 p.m. closing
- 2 – 3 p.m. informal question and answer session with faculty, students, alumni and staff

Online Registration can be accessed at: www.ohsu.edu/dmice or RSVP by calling 503 494-4563 or emailing ilgan@ohsu.edu. Visit our Web site at: www.ohsu.edu/dmice/education

